

The following letter was written by Charlie Williams, Ministry to Men Director. After many requests for him to write a book about Ministry to Men and after several attempts to do just that, someone suggested he simply write letters sharing some of the truths God has been teaching him during the years.

We will be posting his letters on the Ministry to Men Web site. This letter was posted on September 20, 2010

10th letter One liners

Here are several little one liners that have blessed me and continue to bless me. I hope they bless you.

- Faith is not that I see God but that I know God sees me.
- Beware of trusting in your trust and see that you trust in the Lord.
- Beware of trusting in your faith instead of on whom your faith is based.
- No man can really believe God unless God is in him.
- Don't try to make room for God but believe that He has made room for you.
- I once read that the most important single ingredient to a successful marriage is walking together with God and each of you having a desire within you to make the marriage work.
- The good news is 'that he who knows me best is the same one who loves me the best'. Thank you Lord.
- Your dollars help make a ministry possible, your prayers make it profitable.
- Obedience is never a sacrifice
- The world says seeing is believing, God says believing is seeing
- I must continue to learn to doubt my doubts and believe my beliefs, not vice versa!
- Getting married: Men believe women won't change and women believe they can change the man.
- Is my relationship with Christ based on Him or on His blessings?
- It's not what I say, but exactly what I say
- D.L Moody – 'How dare you to speak to men about God before you speak to God about men'.
- Get your 'but' out of the way
- The definition of a hard heart: A hard heart is 'over exposed and under response to the truth'.
