

The following letter was written by Charlie Williams, Ministry to Men Director. After many requests for him to write a book about Ministry to Men and after several attempts to do just that, someone suggested he simply write letters sharing some of the truths God has been teaching him during the years.

We will be posting his letters on the Ministry to Men Web site and changing them periodically, probably weekly. This letter was posted on August 2, 2010

More on Learning (I Cor. 10:12)

God gives me a very strong warning in this verse as far as learning is concerned. The verse says 'Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed that he does not fall'. Gentlemen, when I come to the point where I've totally learned something and believe I know it as well as I'm ever going to know it I'm pretty much ruling God out of that aspect of my life and I figure I can handle it because I know it. What God is telling me in this verse is that I will never learn the totality of what He is teaching me until I get to heaven and I should never make the assumption that I have.
